

designboom's guide to paris design week 2024: highlights in and out of maison&objet

design 74 shares connections: 4

DESIGNBOOM GUIDE TO PARIS DESIGN WEEK 2024

Designboom's Paris guide reveals a curated selection to help you make the most of this vibrant week. Read on to discover everything you need to know about this year's Maison&Objet, along with the must-see exhibitions, installations, and cultural events happening during Paris Design Week 2024.

PIERRE RENART AND STUDIO UCHRONIA AT THE HÔTEL DE LA MARINE

At the prestigious, 18th-century Hôtel de la Marine (find more here), contemporary designers Pierre Renart (find more here) and Studio Uchronia (find more here), will create site-specific artworks inspired by the mansion's rich history. Studio Uchronia, led by Julien Sebban, will transform the main courtyard with an oversized canopy bed installation. This piece, inspired by the grand French-style beds of the past, will feature bright colors and a gradient of earthenware tiles by Palet, reflecting the sky and the mansion's red-hued stones. Curtains in outdoor fabrics will drape from the bed, creating an inviting space for visitors to relax. In the Cour de l'Intendant, Pierre Renart will present a hammock installation inspired by the diamond-shaped glass roof designed by Hugh Dutton. Crafted from flexible hornbeam wood, Renart's piece will echo the crisscrossed elements of the glass canopy. Titled Escale (Stopover), this artwork offers a contemplative space to gaze at the sky through the star-shaped glass edges.

where: Hôtel de la Marine, 2 Pl. de la Concorde, 75008 Paris, France

when: 5-14 September 2024

image courtesy of Maison&Objet