Longchamp

Longchamp unveils a new creative collaboration with furniture designer Pierre Renart at Milan Design Week, from 7-13 April 2025. This marks Renart's debut at the prestigious event, as well as his first exploration of combining wood and leather in his designs.

A graduate of the École Boulle in 2011, Renart has been exclusively represented by Maison Parisienne, showcasing his work in exhibitions worldwide. Known for his innovative approach, he blends traditional woodworking techniques with modern technologies to create furniture that merges aesthetic beauty with technical precision.
